UD MARIAN LIBRARY SHOWS CONTEMPORARY ART EXHIBIT

DAYTON, Ohio -- An exhibition of contemporary art by Diane Thomas Lincoln will be on display in the Marian Library in the University of Dayton's Roesch Library from Nov. 8 to Dec. 31.

Lincoln, an artist from Wichita, Kan., uses collage and mixed media to explore Marian and other religious themes in her pieces. "I find collage to be a highly intuitive and spontaneous way to evoke new relationships and meaning from long-cherished cultural and religious images," says Lincoln.

The Marian Library is the world's largest and most comprehensive collection of printed materials on Mary. Established in 1943, the Marian Library holds more than 86,000 books and pamphlets in some 50 languages, dating from the 15th century to the present.

UD's Marian Library is located on the seventh floor of Roesch Library. Gallery hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Admission is free and open to the public.
